FECHA:

The grid is divided into three horizontal sections. The top section contains three identical groups of five overlapping circles arranged in a horizontal row. Each group has a small blue dot at the top-left intersection of the first two circles. The middle section contains five identical four-lobed floral shapes, each with a small blue dot at the top-left intersection of the top two lobes. The bottom section contains a large grid with a pattern of small blue dots. The dots are arranged in a grid that is 5 columns wide and 10 rows high. The dots are located at the intersections of the grid lines, forming a pattern that is 5 columns wide and 10 rows high.
